PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

by John J. Hicks

Man's education, his family and social traditions, rules of honesty and integrity are powerful factors in the control of his conduct and dependability; a consciousness of the need for these traits also is a determining factor in the path one is to follow in life.

Through the years, it has been the hope that our students, as they leave Wakelon, have gained those traits, characteristics and knowledge necessary to assume the role of a socially and economically competent person respected as a citizen of the community.

This book will in many ways recall school days which you will want to remember. It will help you live again with your friends.

The WAK-IGH-AN staff is to be commended for their untiring efforts and time devoted to the publishing of their annual.

One to grow on . . .

Good health is our business. We take a deep personal pride in watching the growth and development of youngsters raised on Pine State's good, health-giving milk and dairy foods. We feel great satisfaction in the knowledge that we contribute to the growth of the community as we do to the growth of its citizens.

We're proud of the fact that we're growing, too . . . that more and more families are asking for Pine State's pure, delicious milk, ice cream and other fine dairy foods.
